

On This Side Of The Sun

By PHAT

As you'll undoubtedly surmise after reading this issue of The Desert Sun, I'm new here—and you'll probably think, when you get to the end of this, new and fresh, too . . . The reason I say "when you get to the end of this" is because most people are endowed with a healthy curiosity and will wade on to the bitter end, just to learn, if possible, what it's all about . . . I'll tell you later on about that . . . So if you think there's nothing new under the sun, change your mind. That is it . . . I met another newcomer the other morning. He was from Ohio. He asked me the location of a certain spot and I had to spring that oldie: "Stranger, I'm a stranger here myself, I have only been here two days." Then he told me that he had asked another man the same question and had been told: "I don't know, I've only been here 14 years." . . . That's swell, I've got a long time to learn.

HERE'S an idea Palm Springs might cash in on to help gladden the hearts of soldier boys. Mrs. Charles Cruncleton brings it to mind. Seems she was at a woman's club dance at Cost Mesa, where the club women offer a prize in which the lucky soldier ticket holder is allowed to phone to his mother or dad any place in the U. S. A. free . . . It's like they did at the fairs. Everybody gets to listen in on the conversation . . . One boy was so excited he couldn't say a word for the entire three minutes . . . The night Mrs. Cruncleton was there they reversed it and gave the prize to mothers. Mrs. C. won it. But it didn't do her any good. She couldn't locate her boy, Staff Sergeant Pilot Buster Cruncleton . . . It was only after the time was up and the prize no good any more that she heard from him . . . He had been on alert duty in Columbus, Ohio, and hadn't had a chance to write to her to tell her where he was . . . Things happen like that.

I ALMOST got to work at 4 a. m. the first day I was here. Brought down an electric clock, which had been operating faithfully, if a bit noisily, for years, up in the Ontario area and hooked it up, expecting to be yanked out of slumbers along about 6:30 . . . It seems there's a difference in cycles here and elsewhere . . . I think it is 60 here and 50 there . . . will have to ask F. F. Crocker about that . . . Anyway, a lock that does 60 minutes to the hour there does 70 here or something like that . . . Probably never heard of this patriotic "40 per" idea . . . I thought: "Gee, the sun comes up late here in Palm Springs!" . . . But when I tried to get breakfast, I found out different.

THE first time the overwhelming urge came over me to conduct a column, my closest friend and severest critic said: "What in heck makes you think you can write a column?" . . . Those weren't her exact words. She was a bit more honeyed than that . . . But the busy little bee deals in honey, too . . . And can he sting! . . . To be absolutely correct, I guess that should (Continued on Page Seven)

Norma Fischer Married In Las Vegas Tuesday

Coming as somewhat of a surprise to her many friends here, was the announcement of the marriage of pretty Norma Fischer at Las Vegas, Tuesday of this week.

Miss Fischer was the hostess at the Hotel del Tahquitz for the past several seasons. Tom and Billie Lipps drove to Las Vegas to be present at the ceremony.

Only One Mass At Catholic Church Sunday, Sept. 6

Not knowing that he was slated to say the 9 o'clock mass at the Torney Hospital Sunday, September 6, Fr. Norman Raley announced last Sunday that in the future there would be two Sunday masses.

Now the 9 o'clock mass at the Catholic Church is cancelled and the only service will be at 7 a.m.

Anyone wishing to attend the 9 o'clock Catholic service at the hospital is welcome to do so.

Dr. Becker Stricken at Wheel of Car

Local Physician
Found Dead in Auto
At Service Station

Stricken suddenly while seated behind the wheel of his automobile, Dr. John H. Becker, of 1133 San Jacinto Way, died in a local service station Saturday afternoon. Dr. Becker had just driven into the station and shut off the motor of his car, but when the attendant came up to speak to him he was unconscious.

Dr. A. D. Wilson, of Banning, who was in town calling on patients, was summoned and pronounced Dr. Becker dead. Dr. Becker has been spending the summer in Banning, as was his custom since moving to the resort and was apparently in as good health as usual. He was not a strong man, having come here about 10 to 15 years ago seeking to regain his health. At that time he was recently out of medical school at Loma Linda of which he was a graduate. He was 42 years of age on June 13.

His mother and father came to the Pass area 15 years ago she lovingly cared for him and nursed him back to health. Both the mother and father passed away in Banning. Dr. Becker is survived by only one relative as far as is known, a brother, W. M. Becker of 422 South Gaylord street, Denver.

Funeral services for Dr. Becker were held Thursday in Banning from Wiefels & Son chapel, with Elder Johns from Loma Linda, the speaker. Interment was in Montecito Memorial park.

New Law to Put Curb on Photo Solicitors Here

Photographers who send pretty girls out among patrons of cafes and other public spots or who solicit business on the streets, will have to get a license and pay a fee for the privilege this winter, under terms of an ordinance given first reading by city council Wednesday evening.

Those engaging in this trade must first call on the chief of police, who, after investigation, will grant the license on payment of a $5 fee if all requirements are met.

In this manner, the city will be able to control the photographers. The measure does not apply to established photographers with permanent places of business here.

A stiff penalty, carrying a maximum of a $300 fine or a jail term or both, is provided.

School Principal To Be Appointed Early Next Week

Choice of a principal for Palm Springs high school will be made early next week, according to Charles J. Burket, president of the high school board. The board met twice this week to consider 15 applications and Mr. Burket declared the applications are still coming in, but that no more, unless from an outstanding educator, will be considered.

The vacancy in the high school position was caused by the resignation of Morris F. Richardson, who recently was commissioned as a lieutenant, senior grade, in the Naval Air Force intelligence division. Mr. Richardson had served the Palm Springs high school as principal capably since the school was founded several years ago.

With the opening of schools scheduled for September 14, Mr. Burket said the final decision would be reached early in the week.

QUITS COUNTY POST

George M. Willis, Riverside county coordinator of the War Price and Rationing board, has resigned due to a merger of the Riverside and San Bernardino county offices.

Leatherneck Gun Fancier

Gunnery Sergeant S. G. McKay, commander of the guard at U. S. Marine Corps Department of the Pacific Headquarters, exhibits a shoulder weapon in his right hand which is stamped "Harper's Ferry, 1836." In his left hand is a piece dated 1867. Jammed in his belt are a .44 Colt and a .36 caliber, short-barrelled pistol, undated, all parts of his personal collection.

Charles N. Bosworth, Widely Known Local Business Man, Stricken

Succumbs in Riverside Hospital Following
Sudden Illness While Spending Week End
At Idyllwild; Last Rites Said Monday

Palm Springs was saddened last weekend when news came of the death of Charles N. Bosworth, owner of the El Paseo market at 810 North Palm Canyon drive.

Apparently in the best of health, Mr. Bosworth was suddenly stricken late Friday at Idyllwild, where he has owned a cottage for many years.

He was taken to the Community Hospital at Riverside, but failed to rally, passing away Saturday morning.

LAST RITES MONDAY

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at the Harford Funeral Home in Hemet, with the Rev. Bertram B. Weatherall, retired, formerly of the Community Church, officiating.

Pallbearers were Charles Hooper of Idyllwild, John W. Williams, Carl Lykken, Joseph Henderson, Hans Lauritz Hansen and Raymond Cree, all of Palm Springs.

Immediate members of the family at the service were the widow, and the three sons, Clarence, Charles, Jr., and John Briggs Bosworth, all now in war work either in the service or in defense operations.

Countless beautiful floral pieces testified to the great esteem in which Mr. Bosworth was held by Palm Springs. Scores came to mourn from Palm Springs, Hemet, Idyllwild and nearby communities. Interment was in the Hemet-San Jacinto cemetery. HERE SINCE 1928

Mr. Bosworth came to Palm Springs in 1928. Prior to that he had operated groceries in Riverside county communities.

An especially beautiful floral piece came from the Palm Springs Fire department. Mr. Bosworth had been one of the "fathers" of the Palm Springs department. He served, in the days before incorporation, as a commander. (Continued On Page Seven)

Hard Labor to Feature Labor Day for Many

Monday, Labor Day, will be observed by most of the residents of the Village at hard labor, getting ready for the season, which will get into swing earlier than usual this year.

Many of the stores will close for the day, however, and the civic offices will be closed. The post office, according to Postmaster R. M. Gorham, will be doing business as usual.

Bankers will rest and after a day of activity Tuesday, will get another rest Wednesday, Admission Day.

City Grants Army Sewer Line Permit

Clauses Protecting Village Written Into
Document by Council

By unanimous vote, city council Wednesday night, adopted a resolution authorizing Mayor Frank V. Shannon and City Clerk Robert W. Peterson to sign a permit granting the United States Army permission to survey and construct a sewer line along and in certain streets of the city from the Torney Hospital to the proposed new disposal plant on Section 19, south of the airport.

Several new clauses were written into the permit, which had been prepared by army engineers, by City Attorney Roy W. Colegate upon instruction of the council.

NEW CLAUSES ADDED

The new clauses provide that the army restore the streets which will be dug up for the sewer line, to their original condition and the city waived claims for damages providing the army acquires the land by purchase or by condemnation. Under the permit, the army will assume responsibility for injuries or damages caused by construction of the new line.

The instrument provides for a strip approximately 15 feet wide on which the Torney Hospital line will be built. Route of the line is as follows: from the hospital eastward along Tamarisk Road to Avenue De Los Caballeros, thence south to Alejo Road, east across Sunrise Way and along the north boundary of section 13 one mile east of the section corner, then south one mile along the east line of section 13 one mile to Ramon Road, east along the north side of Ramon Road to a point opposite lot 5, section 19; here the sewer line crosses Ramon Road and enters private property on section 19.

WILL NOT BE EYESORE

Located far from any private or public buildings south of Ramon Road on Section 19, the plant, engineers say, will be odorless and landscaping will hide any evidence of its presence.

Cost of the project, including line and plant, will be between $150,000 and $200,000, and its capacity will be sufficient for all present and contemplated future needs.

The resolution, adopted by the council, "deemed it necessary to the war effort" that the permit be granted.

ARE EXPECTED HOME

Dr. and Mrs. John B. Macartney are expected home this week from Bellingham, Washington where he had a summer parish.

Spectacular War Games Come to Halt In Desert Area, to Be Resumed Saturday

Blue and Red armies were resting on their laurels today following spectacular clashes in what army leaders termed the greatest sham battles ever staged by the American Army.

Resumption of the mimic warfare, with new tactical problems to come up for study, is set for Saturday.

The battle got away to a spectacular and roaring start Monday with Blue paratroopers staging a lightning raid on a Red army airport. The action was the first incident of the war games which will rage through "Little Libya" for the next two months.

HUGE BATTLE BEGINS

Later the armored spear-heads of Maj. Gen. Homer C. Brown's Red army got into contact with the Blue army at many points in the passes of the low desert mountains and the major battle was on.

Closing phases of the battle were described in press dispatches as follows:

From mountaintop observation posts the military observers saw bombing planes and artillery of Maj. Gen. Robert C. Richardson's Blue forces stop a rampaging Red army on the salt flats of Danby

Was It a Civvie in a Jeep or a Soldier Affired in Civvies?

Chief of Police Lyle J. Sanard doesn't know whether it really was a civilian in a jeep or just a soldier in civvies.

The incident came to a head Monday morning when the police teletype chafed off a message that a civilian, in an army jeep, was heading this way from Banning.

A check was immediately made by the chief in the event that some civilian had become bold enough to steal an army jeep, but a long patrol of the highway was without result.

It is believed that if it was a civilian, in a jeep, he had bypassed Palm Springs, but that most likely it was a soldier in coveralls.

Graettinger at Desk of Desert Sun

Long-Time Writer
Assumes Editorship
With This Issue

R. F. Graettinger, active in Southern California newspaper circles for the past quarter century, and managing editor of the Daily Report, at Ontario, Calif., for the past 14 years, became editor of The Desert Sun this week, moving to town Sunday.

Graettinger started his newspaper career as newsboy and later graduated to a job as printer's devil. Then he switched to the news side of the business and after working in Los Angeles as a reporter, moved to Ontario. There he was reporter, sports editor, news editor and finally managing editor. He resigned in May, this year, actuated by that desire which all newspapermen in the daily field acquire some time during their career—"to get out of the game."

But like most all newspapermen of long experience, he couldn't stay out.

Mrs. Graettinger will remain in the Ontario area for the present.

They have two sons, Jack, an ensign in the U. S. navy, and a student at present at Harvard Medical school in Boston, and Bob, who has been on tour with a dance band during the summer and is now located in Los Angeles.

The early part of the week was spent getting acquainted in and with Palm Springs and the new editor of The Sun was much impressed by the friendliness of the community and its people.

Council Acts to Keep Local Ration Board

Board Authorizes
Manager Bailey to Notify L.A. Offices

Palm Springs office of the local war price and rationing board will not be closed, as a result of action taken Wednesday night by the city council. Acting swiftly to meet the emergency, the city council authorized City Manager Arthur Bailey to notify Fred D. Yeger of the OPA staff in Los Angeles that the city will underwrite the secretarial and incidental supply costs of the local board. Methods and details of financing the plan will be determined at a future meeting.

Under recent government economy orders, one-fourth of all of the rationing boards in the nation were abolished. Palm Springs was one of those in Riverside county slated to go.

ACTION IS SPEEDY

Because the order would mean that Palm Springs residents would have to travel either to Banning or Indio, a matter of 50 miles round trip every time they had business with the rationing board, steps to retain the office here were immediately taken. Mayor Frank Shannon, City Manager Bailey and Eugene Theriault, board members, succeeded in gaining a conference in San Bernardino.

Later Mr. Bailey and John Chaffey contacted Yeger in Los Angeles and obtained a promise that the local office would be kept open provided Palm Springs pay the costs.

COUNTY PROTESTS

City Councilman Philip Boyd presented the motion at the Wednesday night meeting which authorized Mr. Bailey to notify Yeger that Palm Springs would meet the government offer.

Riverside county supervisors have protested the closing order because of the great distances involved in the county area. There are 12 local boards in the county and Price Administrator Henderson's economy order would close three of them. Besides the local board, boards in Beaumont and San Jacinto were also affected.

Mrs. Zaddie Bunker, chairman of the local board, said Thursday that new regulations, which had just arrived, increased the size of boards to 12 persons and that, therefore, seven more would be appointed to the local board.

Registration for H. S. Students Set For Sept. 11, 12

New students, about to start their studies in Palm Springs high school were reminded today by Morris F. Richardson, retiring principal, to register for class work either Friday, September 11 or Saturday, September 12, at the high school offices, which will be open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.

School will open Monday, September 14, at 8:25 a.m.

Students who have been attending the school and who registered during the spring, were asked to appear Friday or Saturday if they desired to change their study cards. New students, transferring here, also are asked to appear Friday or Saturday.

Bus runs were announced by Mr. Richardson as follows:

The north run will leave from the north end of Indian avenue at 8 a.m., continuing down that thoroughfare to pick up students from the north part of the Village. The south run will leave Cathedral City at 7:30 a.m., to accommodate students from the south end.

The first day's session will be an abbreviated one, from 8:25 to 12:25. Regular full-time classwork will start on Tuesday, September 15.

Mr. Richardson estimates a sharp increase in attendance this year. He expects the registration to top the 200 mark. The peak last year was 188 students.

FERRYING COMMAND NOTES

News of the Army Ferrying Command Detachment at Palm Springs Airport

By Burt O. Randall

In a colorful ceremony Saturday, August 29, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bennett were presented with a plaque by the officers and men of the Ferrying Command Detachment in appreciation for the courtesy extended to the men by the Bennetts during the hot summer months. Also present were Col. R. E. Spake, Lieut. Col. Frain and their staff, Lieut. Col. A. Minton, formerly stationed at Palm Springs, was also present. The ceremony was recorded for posterity by that able cameraman, Pete Bennett.

The Ferrying Command ball team came back with a bang Tuesday night, defeating the State Guard team, 13 to 2. The fact that the Ferrying Command furnished the Guards with three men might have had something to do with the victory.

Word has been received of the serious illness of the father of Cpl. Ray L. Feuerbacher, in Shattuck, Oklahoma, necessitating Cpl. Feuerbacher remaining at his side for a few days more.

Lieut. Ullrich, our post adjutant, returned Wednesday from a Ferrying trip east.

Lieut. Walsh, the general engineering officer of the post, has been transferred to an undisclosed point. He left Sunday.

The Ferrying Command ball team will play the Rinkydinks next Tuesday night, and it promises to be a good one, with Pvt. Geo. McGoff as the new manager.

The Ferrying Command had a watermelon feed for the enlisted men, and it was a great success. Over 20 watermelons were eaten, disappearing faster than they could be cut. The officers of the post and their wives and girl friends were also present.

S/Sgt. Saari, S/Sgt. Homan, Cpl. Gleason, Cpl. Kobinski, Cpl. Timberlake, and Pvt. Geib are expected to return this weekend from their furloughs.

The work on the new barracks is progressing rapidly and they should be ready to occupy by October 1.

Sgt. H. C. Jones and Cpl. C. R. Pickett expect to leave in the near future for a visit to their homes.

"I Rise to Remark"

By SENATOR JOHN PHILLIPS

Mr. A. is a respected member of the community in which he has lived for more than 20 years. His wife is popular and has held offices in local women's organizations. Their son is an honor student in the public school.

Mr. A. is a craftsman, in the best sense of the word. He became a carpenter by the apprenticeship system, and understands his trade as all craftsmen used to understand and practice the trades they had learned. He did not become a craftsman by the process of deciding that he would buy a hammer and a saw and be a carpenter, or buy a Stillson wrench and become a plumber. Knowing his craft as an individual workman, he eventually became a successful general contractor.

Mr. A. is one of the "middle-class" about which I have risen to remark in this column many times in recent weeks. He could not get material; he could not get men to work for him; he could not be sure of promised deliveries, and he found it difficult to bid on a market where rising prices made quotations uncertain and where a delay in the acceptance of a bid might place him in a position of having to carry out a contract at a personal loss.

Mr. A. turned therefore to his craft. He applied for work to a large contractor, holding the contract to build a government project closely connected with the war, and not very far outside the boundaries of Riverside County. He applied for work as a foreman, which his experience obviously fitted him, and was told that there might be an opening for him in that capacity, but that he would have to wait a few days for the decision. Being a typical American, Mr. A. suggested that he be put to work at once as a carpenter.

The first day he appeared for work, he discovered in the group to which he had been assigned several men who had worked for him when he himself was a contractor, remarking however that politics will only be adjourned and such incidents as this eliminated, when the rising tide of opinion among tractor. These men, loyal to him and knowing his ability, promptly reported to the general contractor something of his background. The second day he went to work he found himself a foreman.

Three weeks later he became one of three assistant superintendents on the entire contract job. His experience and his ability had put him there in so short a time. A slight change in a method of building forms, saved several thousand dollars. A little experience in the matter of pouring cement saved something on every yard of cement used. One glance at a set of blue-prints showed him an error which would have caused a minor complication later. He was simply the typical American workman, trained, and with ingenuity, self-reliance, and experience.

As assistant superintendent, he had a dozen foremen under him. Some of these, shall we say, lacked the experience and the efficiency which characterized Mr. A. He warned one of them, and upon the third warning made out the necessary discharge forms. This was in the morning. That evening Mr. A. was called to the superintendent's office and he himself was asked to resign. He had had two promotions, a record of efficiency and ability, and numerous commendations for good work and for time and money saving ideas. The foreman involved had no such recommendations. He had however a good voting record.

The officer who acted as inspector for the project threw his entire weight of influence back of Mr. A. with all of the force, and considerable of the language, which distinguishes the service. Apparently this did not outweigh the laudable voting record of the foreman. Mr. A. is no longer on this particular job.

As the President of the United States, and the Governor of California, have so properly said, politics MUST be adjourned for the duration of the war. I rise to the American people demands the adjournment and the elimination. This is an actual case, within the month, with only names and locations omitted.

General Electric Announces Lower Prices On Lamps

Another substantial reduction affecting the list prices of G-E Mazda fluorescent lamps and costs of wartime lighting, effective September 1, has been announced by General Electric's lamp department. This price reduction, ranging from 12 to 17 per cent on individual G-E Mazda fluorescent lamps affected, marks the seventh major reduction in four years.

The price reduction, made in the face of rising cost trends in other commodity lines, is attributed to a combination of new manufacturing economies, recent technical developments, and increased use of the product in war industries. They also point to such additional consumer benefits as the increased light output and extended burning life of today's G-E Mazda F (fluorescent) lamps. As in the past, the new reduction in price is made in accordance with the company's policy to immediately pass such savings along to consumers.

The popular 40-watt white G-E Mazda L lamp, for example, now gives five and one-half times more value for the lamp dollar than it did in 1939. It is said to give 12 per cent more light and to last 66 per cent longer than it did then. At its new price it will list for only 95 cents instead of the present $1.15 price. In 1939, this lamp was listed at $2.80.

Other lamp types to be reduced on September 1 by G. E. include three G-E Mazda H (mercury) lamps, each widely used for wartime lighting in manufacturing plants, as well as the popular 40-50 and 60-watt household filament-type G-E Mazda lamps. The latter will list at 10 cents each instead of the 13-cent list price.

Torney General Jottings

News of the Enlisted Men of the Medical and Quartermaster Detachment at Torney Army General Hospital, Palm Springs

By Corporal Russell H. Genich

Many of the enlisted men of the hospital turned out for the festivities at the USO Hospitality House Saturday night, August 29. The Camp Young boys did an A-1 job of providing dance music, and girls from Redlands, Los Angeles and Palm Springs acted as hostesses and dance partners. An added attraction was the appearance of Leonid Kinsey, Hollywood character actor, who entertained with his unique brand of humor.

CHAPEL SERVICES

Sunday's chapel service in the administration building lobby was well attended. Chaplain Hayes stirring text, "The Battle of Life," was well received. Augmenting the sermon was a vocal duet, "The Lord Is My Shepherd," by Mrs. Claude Gottbehuert and Mrs. Charles O'Brien, and a song by the choir.

Private First Class Samson, a professional violinist, will play for next Sunday's service. His selection is Massenet's "Meditation from Thais."

We note with regret the transfer of First Lieutenant Helen Kornfiend of the Nurse Corps to another post. Miss Kornfiend had served as the accompanist for the chapel service. Mrs. Henry S. Murphey, wife of Major Murphey, has generously offered her services in this capacity.

BASEBALL BOOMING

The Torney General Hospital ball team came up with two victories the week of August 23rd. The team defeated the Hornets, 8-7 on the 27th, and the Ferry Command, 12-9 on the 28th.

In defeating the Hornets, the Medics took advantage of a let-down by that team to score five runs in the second. The game was highlighted by Second Baseman Carr's four-bagger, a triple by Shortstop Anderson, and the steal home by Catcher Meyers, scoring a run which proved to be the deciding tally.

From a spectator's standpoint, the game with the Ferry Command proved to be the most exciting of the season. Every man on the Hospital squad proved himself a star during this bang-

YES, THE ELECTION IS OVER, BUT----

The most important thing Americans have to think about at this time is the winning of the war. We are straining every effort to that end by the manufacture of tanks, planes, ships and plants for the building of scores of important bits of equipment.

On the other hand, we must also be thinking of the citizens of tomorrow—the boys and girls of today. That is where the schools step in. These youngsters must now begin to think of the important things of life. The school teacher has an important responsibility in that regard, along with the parents in their duties at home.

Let us all work together to make our citizens strong for what may be ahead of us tomorrow.

Life Story of Bill Hay, of Radio Fame Told by Hollywood Columnist

One of Palm Springs' more prominent citizens, William G. (Bill) Hay, noted radio announcer, manager and entertainer, was the recipient of additional fame recently when he drew top spot and practically all of the rest of Zuma Palmer's column in the Citizen-News of Hollywood.

Mrs. Claude Gottbehe brought the article concerning Bill Hay, who maintains a home here, to The Desert Sun office. It follows:

By ZUMA PALMER

Bill Hay got into radio by chance. "There was no network broadcasting 19 years ago," said the former Amos 'n' Andy announcer who is pleasing many listeners over KHJ with his daily readings from the Bible. "Westinghouse had KDKA in Pittsburgh and KYW in Chicago. A station was built in Colorado but reception of Mid-West programs was unsatisfactory, probably because of the mountains between. A Chicago engineer drew an arc on a map. Should a relay station be built at Grand Island or at Hastings, Neb.? The latter town was selected and that was where I came in."

Hay was treasurer of the piano and furniture store which occupied the highest building in town. "Westinghouse put in a studio for test broadcasting," continued Hay. "Someone was wanted who knew something about music. I had taught voice and directed a chorus, so I was elected. Then they wanted someone who could talk intelligently. It was suggested that I could do that too. Well, I did everything but sweep up and sometimes I did even that."

In 1928 Hay went to WGN, Chicago, where he was combination manager and announcer. While there he met Charles Correll and Freeman Gosden. He announced their program on which they were known as Sam and Henry. When they moved to WMAQ, as Amos 'n' Andy, Hay went, too. In addition to working with them, he had several programs of his own, one of Bible readings and another of Scotch songs and stories. "Because Scotch is something like low Dutch," said Hay, "many German came to enjoy the latter series."

It was in Chicago that Hay met the girl to whom he has been happily married for 27 years. He was singing professionally in a quartet in the church which she attended. They lost the only child they had. "She is a splendid accompanist," remarked Hay. "If you should pass our house in Palm Springs most any evening, you would hear musical noises. If I should stop singing in the middle of a song to go for a walk around the block, Mrs. Hay would be waiting to pick up right where I had left off. Singing gives artistic esthetic and physical joy."

Hay was born in Dumfries, Scotland, one of eight children. He was the only living member of his family who did not settle in Canada. "I had planned to be a civil servant in India," he explained, "but a brother told me what a wonderful country the United States was. I came here and get my naturalization pa-

Sanitary District Election, Sept. 14

Notices of election for two members to serve on the governing board of the Palm Springs Sanitary district were prepared and posted this week by Judge Guy Pinney, attorney for the district. The election will be held on September 14 and ballots held now in the hands of the printers.

Members whose terms expire are Thomas H. Lipps and Harold J. Hicks. They are unopposed for re-election.

Hold-over members of the board are George B. Roberson, Clarence A. Hyde and Florian Boyd. Polling place will be at the Frances S. Stevens school, 538 North Palm Canyon Drive, and the polls will be open from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m.

pers as soon as possible. I believe that anyone who lives and makes a living in a country should become a citizen or go back where he came from."

Hay has never returned to his birthplace. "When I had the time, I did not have the money. When I had the money I could not get away," he explained. "My two brothers have been back. One wanted to see the two story home which had a fireplace in every bedroom but only one bathroom. The fireplaces were never used, so they only made the rooms colder. My other brother, a prominent resident of Toronto, visited the former headmaster of the academy the eight of us attended. The teacher, then 84, said to Frank, 'The Hay children. Oh, yes. There were Jamie, and Violet and Willie, he was the one most interested in sports and music. Then there were, well, he named us all and told what each had done except when he came to Frank. He deflated him by saying, 'But you, I don't seem to remember.' Frank told him about the opera he had been in and then the headmaster walked to a wall and pointed him out of a picture which hung there."

If Hay were to go back, he said among the places he would visit would be the athletic field where he broke his nose in football, the tree to which Bobbie Burns invited 12 or more girls for a date at one time and then climbed into the branches to hear what they had to say about him, and the Lincluden Abbey.

The philosophy of Bill Hay is to "give the other fellow a break." He does not like the dogmatic person who sees no good in another. As for his radio work, he does not want to be considered preachy. The Bible to him is the most beautiful literature in the world and has much of value for these present days. He reads from the King James version and selects the passages according to the mood he is in. His attitude is non-denominational.

Two from Village Register for Term At Pomona College

Among new freshmen students registering at Pomona College this week were two from Palm Springs, John Ryan, son of Mrs. Thelma Wertheimer, and Miss Marian Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Williams.

They participated in a series of "orientation" events held on the campus during the four days preceding official registration on Tuesday of this week.

Pomona College's orientation program is as traditional now as it was original when it was inaugurated several years ago. With upperclassmen, who are campus leaders, acting as sponsors, and with faculty members serving as advisers, the students are acquainted with the college and its program before classes convene.

Arriving Friday night for dinners in Frary hall and Blaisdell hall, new students had their first assembly together and met with faculty advisers. Saturday was a day crammed with events—psychological examinations and language tests, the Camp Bethel retreat in San Dimas canyon for freshmen men and informal social events on the campus for new women students. Sunday's impressive worship services under the oaks at Camp Bethel and in Guild Hall were occasions in the never-to-be-forgotten niche. On Monday, more conferences with faculty advisers, individually, with registration and classes taking up the rest of the week.

Ludie Britsch to Hold Bowling Classes Here

Ludie W. Britsch of Riverside, a prominent Southern California bowling instructor, is now conducting free classes for women at the Palm Springs Bowling academy at 378 North Palm Canyon Drive.

The classes are being held every Wednesday evening.

Mr. Britsch is a former Palm Springs resident, having made his home here at 1285 Buena Vista Drive.

BROWN LEADS ALL CANDIDATES FOR CENTRAL COMMITTEE

Carl R. Brown of Beaumont, chairman of the county Democratic Central Committee, lead all candidates for positions on the new committee at the election last Tuesday with a total of 1,090 votes.

The vote for members of the committee from the Fourth district was as follows, with five to be elected:

Brown, 1,090; Ritchey, 754; Tebo, 711; Thomas, 650; Campbell, 622; Diamond, 552.

E. E. Hoppe Gets Ready for Season At New Nursery

E. E. Hoppe, who for more than a dozen years has been busy helping making the desert bloom and who is one of the leading nursery men of the Village, is active these days making a beauty spot out of his new nursery and salesroom on North Palm Canyon Drive, opposite the Torrey General hospital.

Hoppe came here along about 1930 as a gardener, but with the establishment of a nursery as his goal. He is an expert on desert flora and specializes in ornamental shrubbery and trees especially adapted for the area in and around Palm Springs.

With the end of summer nearing, he and his crews are especially busy these days. He estimates that he will lay out between 150 and 200 lawns in the next few weeks and that these operations will require about six tons of seed.

Issue Another Call For Volunteers for Air Raid Wardens

Another call was issued this week by Culver Nichols, chief aircraft warning observer, for volunteer watchers for Palm Springs. Adult watchers are needed especially for the period between midnight and dawn. An appeal was issued for adults to man the watches between 12 midnight and 3 a.m., and between 3 and 6 a.m. Some of the younger people are willing to take these watches, but because of the emergency, the warning service insists that at least one more responsible, older person be included.

The drive for volunteers was spurred by the first of a series of special programs called "Eyes Aloft", which was released through KFI Monday evening at 6 o'clock. The program was under the sponsorship of the Fourth Fighter Command.

In a telegram to Mayor Frank Shannon, received here Monday afternoon, Kenneth B. Hamaker, executive director of the California state council of defense, said:

"First radio program 'Eyes Aloft' will originate from KFI, Hollywood, six p.m., Monday, August 31. Program is for purpose of obtaining volunteers in Aircraft Warning Service, and is under sponsorship of Fourth Fighter Command. Your assistance in disseminating this news will be appreciated."

Miss Marylou Kingsbury, secretary to City Clerk Robert Peterson, immediately typed several notices which were posted in prominent spots in the Village.

Those desiring to volunteer for the air raid warning service are asked to communicate either with Mr. Nichols or telephone 2202.

According to Mr. Nichols, the need is urgent and quick action is necessary.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

Village Sandwich Shop Will Open for Season Labor Day

Gordon Feeings, owner and operator of the Village Sandwich shop on Palm Canyon Drive, opposite the Indianoya, was putting the finishing touches on elaborate preparations for the opening of the ninth season at his ever-popular eating spot.

The establishment has been renovated and redecorated from front to back and put in spic and span condition for the opening, scheduled for Labor Day, next Monday.

Mr. Feeings, Wednesday, announced the personnel of the shop. Charles Thomas will be night manager, Arnie Davis will be chef in complete charge of the preparation of all foods, and Gladys Denton will be hostess and cashier. All three have been with the Village Sandwich Shop for some years. Feeings says the rest of the crew which he is now organizing, will be equipped to provide the best of service.

Feeings is opening the sandwich shop from the very start on a 24-hour basis to accommodate construction men and army personnel whose eating hours now are so varied they cover the entire day.

"Men in uniform will be especially welcome at the Village Sandwich Shop," said Feeings, "and they will receive special attention."

"At the shop, we are going to miss Don C. Maher, one of our old stand-bys, who is now in the service of Uncle Sam, stationed at Camp Joseph T. Robinson in Arkansas."

George C. Kellogg Leaves Village for Service With Navy

George C. Kellogg, one of Palm Springs' leading painting contractors since 1940, and active here in the decorating business for six years, left this week for the United States Naval Training station at San Diego, where he will join the navy as a petty officer, 3rd class. Mr. Kellogg first came to the Village six years ago and two years ago went into business for himself.

During that time he played a large role in the community's civic life. He was corporal in the State Guard company and has a reputation as one of the leading local fishermen. He has just returned from two weeks spent at Clarence Purnell's Jordan Hot Springs resort in the High Sierras, packing in from Independence.

Mrs. Kellogg will accompany her husband to San Diego and remain there for several weeks. Then she plans to go to Ontario to stay with her mother, Mrs. H. A. Price of California boulevard, that city.

During his absence in the service, Mr. Kellogg has asked C. E. Crumpton, pioneer painter and decorator here, to take care of his customers. Mr. Crumpton is one of Palm Springs' oldest established painting contractors, having been in business here for 16 years.

Returns To Village After Summer's Rest

John Sprague, Jr., of 775 Paseo El Mirador, Palm Springs city treasurer, who has been coming to the city to attend to his official duties one or more times a week during the summer, returned for the season this week. Mrs. Sprague will follow within a few days.

New Mess Halls Go in Service at General Hospital

Enlisted men and civilian personnel of Torney Army General Hospital were this week using the new mess hall located in the main dining rooms of the formerly world-renowned El Mirador with old equipment renovated and brought up to date and shining perfection and new equipment installed where needed.

Conversion of the main dining rooms of the famous hostelry for use by patients, army and civilian personnel marked another step in its transformation to one of the largest and best equipped army hospitals.

BEYOND FORMER CAPACITY

The dining rooms at the present time are serving more people than were ever served at the height of the season by the hotel and the clean, bright kitchens are preparing and serving several hundred meals daily. Changes which have been made were designed to increase the light and airiness of the kitchens and dining rooms and the bright paint has worked wonders.

A peek at the menus at the hospital indicates that no one, enlisted man, civilian personnel or civilian employee, is going to want for proper food, well-balanced, tasty and with just the proper number of calories.

SOME SAMPLE MENUS

A sample Sunday menu, arranged by the head dietitian, leaves nothing to be desired. Here it is:

BREAKFAST—Stewed prunes, farina, hot cakes, syrup, bacon, toast and butter, coffee, milk.

DINNER—Cream of pea soup, crackers; roast turkey, dressing; mashed potatoes; candied carrots; pear and cottage cheese salad; bread and butter; butterscotch sundae; orangeade.

SUPPER—Veal birds; baked potato; vegetable salad; bread and butter; chocolate pudding; lemonade.

JUST AS EXCELLENT

The week day menus are every bit as excellent. Here's one that was used Tuesday, September 1:

BREAKFAST—Orange; oatmeal; scrambled eggs; toast and butter; coffee, milk.

DINNER—Vegetable soup, crackers; frankfurters, catsup; potato salad; sauerkraut; bread and butter; ice cream; iced coffee.

SUPPER—Roast lamb, gravy; mashed potatoes; buttered peas; salad bowl, celery, parsley, lettuce; bread and butter; watermelon; orangeade.

AS NEVER BEFORE

An interesting incident in connection with the hospital was revealed this week. One of the patients had been a florist for years in the east and while convalescing, asked permission to work in the old El Mirador rose garden in the court. He had been a rose specialist and had been fairly itching to get into the rose garden from the first moment he saw it.

The necessary permit having been granted, he went to work with pruning shears and clippers and expects to have the garden bloom as it never did before.

Construction work is proceeding rapidly at the hospital, where all available space is being utilized. New buildings are springing up and what was once a world-famous hotel will soon be a world-famous hospital.

Company Raises Wages To Meet Cost Of Living

A ten dollar per month "cost of living" wage adjustment for all employees earning less than $300.00 per month has been announced by Southern California Gas Company.

Effective as of August 16th, the raise is a boost in hourly rate of 5.77 cents. The adjustment is designed to aid employees in meeting the rise in the cost of living which has occurred since the last general increase a year ago, according to company spokesman.

Radio Stations Out on Unsolicited "Aerial Good Will Tour" for Village

Combating rumors which have become prevalent since the United States Army decided that Palm Springs had more to offer than most any other Southern California community, the Village received a bit of free advertising on the air waves over the weekend and undoubtedly will receive more.

Two radio stations, KPPO of Riverside, and KFXM of San Bernardino, voluntarily broadcast that Palm Springs is definitely not merely an army post, but preparing to operate as the nation's leading winter resort as usual this season.

RUMOR IS STARTED

Due to a combination of circumstances, the rumor had spread in the past few weeks that Palm Springs had been "taken over by the army." Source of the talk has been hard to trace, because of the many small factors entering into the picture, according to civic leaders.

Executive Secretary John Chaffey of the Chamber of Commerce recited an example of how the rumor spread. During summer troop movements, guards were stationed temporarily on the highway, just as they have been and are being stationed in countless other cities. A trailer tourist, heading this way, was asked whether he owned property, if not, he could not pass.

He immediately returned to Los Angeles and told friends that Palm Springs had been taken over by the army. Calls soon came into the Auto Club office in that city and to headquarters of the All-Year Club, from tourists who had heard the talk, their fears were quickly allayed when they were told that there was nothing to the story.

STILL DOING BUSINESS

The two radio stations, on their aerial "good will missions" this week, in unsolicited publicity for the Village, told listeners within range of their stations, that Palm Springs was still very much in the resort limelight with hotels and other places of business ready for another big season. KPPO put on a half-hour broadcast last Saturday evening, while at KFXM the following Statement is being issued daily in their Spotlight program:

"There have been certain rumors spreading throughout California that Palm Springs has been taken over by the army. It is desired to correct this impression by telling you that, with the exception of the El Mirador, all hotels and apartment houses in Palm Springs will be available to the public during the fall season — many of them already open. It would be appreciated if you would knock down this false rumor about your neighbor—Palm Springs."

Baseball, Past And Future, at the Field Club

Four ball games were played at the Field club during the last week with six on the schedule for the coming week. The public is invited to see these games and is sure of getting plenty of action.

One of the special attractions next week will be the ball game between Torney Hospital and the Rinkydinks on Monday, Labor Day.

RESULTS OF GAMES

Friday, August 28
Ferrying Command—9, Torney Hospital—12.
Monday, August 31
57th Quartermaster Corps—5, Co. L, 81st A.R.—3.
Tuesday, September 1

COMING GAMES

In addition to the Labor Day game, games slated for next week are:
Friday, September 4
Exhibition game — double-header.
Tuesday, September 8
Ferrying Command vs. Rinkydinks.
Wednesday, September 9
Exhibition game.
Thursday, September 10

Marcus Cafe Closed For Redecoration, To Open Again Sept. 8

Marcus Carol, of the Marcus cafe, popular eating spot featuring Mexican and Latin dishes at 370 North Palm Canyon Drive, is busy this week directing the work of a large staff of cleaners and decorators preparing for the reopening of the widely known restaurant on September 8.

The cafe closed last week to enable a large crew to carry on the work of preparing for the long busy season ahead.

Among many improvements scheduled, the principal one will be the redecoration of the dining room.

Cathedral City 100% On Guard Against Air Attack, Judge Says

The following open letter from Judge Francis Krull of Cathedral City, a copy of which he submitted to The Desert Sun, is self-explanatory:

4 a.m. Naval time 0400,
September 2, 1942.

To Russel Z. Smith, Captain, Signal Corps, Los Angeles Regional Information Center of the Commanding Officer Ground Observation Platoon, P.O. Box 2158, Terminal Annex, Los Angeles, California:

Just to say that in a little village called Cathedral City, California, with no Cathedral and no jail, every day common folks, old and young, are co-operating 100 per cent to watch the sky and report airplanes passing by. Yes, we are Americans proud of our heritage. To have been born and live in the U.S.A., is the greatest thing in any of our lives.

To reach three score and ten with health and strength to do a bit in the greatest trial for what America stands, as it is given us to see, is a thrill. We know our cause is just and the tyranny that has again raised its venomous head must be crushed.

Liberty is worth fighting for, without it, life holds no happiness. So let's again all say: "Give us Life and Liberty or Give us Death!"
What say you?

Cheerio,

"GAY SISTERS" WITH BARBARA STANWYCK AND GEORGE BRENT PLUS BETTY GRABLE IN "FOOTLIGHT SERENADE" AT BANNING

"The Gay Sisters" starring Barbara Stanwyck and George Brent is positively coming to the Banning Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, it was announced today. It's companion feature, which is as good if not better than "The Gay Sisters," is "Footlight Serenade," starring John Payne and Betty Grable. "The Gay Sisters" was booked at the local theatre about a week ago, but it was necessary due to Wartime conditions to substitute another picture in its place. As many patrons voiced their disappointment at that time, Manager Eddie Collins rebooked the picture at the earliest possible moment, which is Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

Report Reveals Over 1000 Per Month in Pools

Palm Springs Recreation Commission plans to close the pool at the Racquet Club on the day of school opening, it was announced today. The Hoof pool was closed on the first of the month.

Both pools were open to the public all summer and were well patronized under the able direction of Lyman Lambeth and Recreation Director Dick Taylor.

More than a thousand persons used the pools each month, a check revealed today.

The commission is deeply grateful to President Farrell of the Racquet Club and A. C. Hoof for making the pools available to the public.

FOUR MILLION DOLLAR PROJECT GOES TO THERMAL

A four million dollar army base is to be constructed in Riverside county. At that time the War Department had not announced where it would be located.

It has since been learned that the huge air base will be near Thermal. The base will include large dormitories, hangars, shops and other installations. Lumber for the project began to be unloaded at Thermal last week.

Officials of the Coachella Valley area are attempting to have the valley declared a defense area and thus eligible for building priorities.

PHILLIPS' VOTE EXCEEDS WEST'S BY 5,000

If the returns from the primary election on Tuesday can be taken as a basis for judging what the vote will be in the general election in November, there can be no doubt of the victory of State Senator John Phillips, seeking to represent the new Twenty-second district over the Democratic nominee, N. E. West, of Laguna Beach.

Total returns from all 525 voting precincts in the district show Phillips' total vote to be 21,409 and West's 16,273, or a majority of 5,136 for Phillips.

The combined vote of all the other candidates seeking nomination was:

City Budget Under Study by Committee

Budget for Palm Springs for the coming fiscal year, which will serve as a guide for the city in financial matters, is now in the hands of the finance committee for study and report. City Manager A. E. Bailey told council members Wednesday evening.

"The closing date for submission of briefs and application of individuals and organizations to be heard at the oral hearings was originally set for August 27," Bailey stated.

"We urge all individuals and organizations which could not submit briefs or statements of their viewpoint before August to do so immediately."

These negotiations entail a possible fifty per cent reduction of the existing tariff on almonds. Growers are deeply concerned because the estimated 1942 domestic crop alone will produce considerably greater volume than consumed in the United States last year.

Bailey announced that fourteen farmer cooperatives marketing more than ninety per cent of California's major processed crops have joined with the Almond Growers' Exchange in opposition to the proposed treaty as it affects all farm products at least indirectly. The national Farm Bureau, Grange and Farmers' Union will also participate at the hearing.

Cecil Will Protest

Director W. J. Cecil of the State Department of Agriculture will submit a brief and appear at the hearing in behalf of the protesting growers. Many rural chambers of commerce have joined with the agricultural units of the metropolitan chambers in supporting the growers before the State Department.

"We recognize world conditions and the difficult position of the State Department in international relations," Bailey stated. "However, that department has long since recognized and supported the growing of protected specialty crops. The department of Agriculture has frequently conceded their economic value in making us a self-sustained nation and in their elimination of price-wrecking surpluses through crop diversification. No part of our economy, be it industry, labor or agriculture, can endure a sudden economic dislocation by an almost arbitrary reduction of its net returns. We believe in the American way, and to that extent will enter a strong factual protest to the treaty negotiations as it affects the growers."

This Realty Deal For Local Home Made In A Hurry

Howard D. Daviess, who has been at Blythe, has purchased the W. E. Rabbeth house in the Winter Haven tract and he and Mrs. Daviess will soon take possession.

The deal was made by Peter E. Sheptenko.

But it was more than a prosaic real estate deal.

Daviess, who will be manager of a Union Oil company station here, dropped in to see Sheptenko with a rental in mind.

During the course of the conversation he said:

"I certainly like it here in Palm Springs."

"Well, then, why not own a home here?" asked Sheptenko.

tenko.

"That's a good idea," came back Daviess.

And the deal was closed then and there.

Proving That You Can't Get a Free Ride in a Taxi

Corporal Harry R. Pickett sojourning in the care of Palm Springs police Thursday while the latter awaited the army's decision on where the soldier would face a hearing on charges of grand theft, auto.

Corporal Pickett, en route home, apparently grew tired of waiting for a ride and is accused of appropriating a Yellow taxi, two blocks from the honey hospital.

He might have ridden all the way home without paying taxi fare had it not been for one little oversight.

He forgot to turn on the lights.

So Officer Johnson stopped the taxi, two blocks from the hospital, to remind the driver there was no blackout. To his surprise, he found the soldier at the wheel. The arrest followed.

Council Approves All of Planners' Recommendations

All recommendations made by the Palm Springs planning commission were approved at Wednesday night's meeting of city council and a hearing on one request was set for October 7.

The commission recommended changes in Ordinance 75, altering the wording of definitions of families, yards, private garages and the like, to clarify the measure and to permit of greater dispatch in handling applications and requests. Council approved the recommendations and City Attorney Roy W. Colegate was instructed to prepare the proposed amendments.

The commission recommended that the request of J. W. Williams for a change in the status of lots 1, 2, 3, 4, 5 and 6 and 100 feet of lot 5, section 23, from residential to general business, be denied. It also recommended that the request of J. G. Munholland to change the rating of Lot 10 in the John Mel tract, from residential to business, be denied. Both recommendations were approved by council.

Request of D. B. Carlin that lots 16 and 17 in the Palm Springs Village tracts be placed in a broader residential zone, was also urged denied by the commission. Council set October 7, at 8:15 p. m., as date for hearing on this matter.

INDIGENT AID IN COUNTY SHOWS BIG DROP

Indigent aid in Riverside county for July was given to 274 cases, a drop of 234 from the 1941-42 peak of 508 cases reached in August, 1941, California Taxpayers' association stated today, following its study of the trend of indigent relief in California counties for the last fiscal year.

Largest total amount of aid extended to county indigents in the county for any month in the 1941-42 fiscal year was in August, 1941, when $11,281 was distributed to people on indigent relief. For July, 1942, aid extended totaled $5,778, the association found.

Indigent aid cases in the county have shown a steady falling off for the past four months, the association stated, pointing out that further and continued decline is to be expected.

"Demands of the war for manpower, both in the armed forces and in industry, are opening job opportunities for many men and women who formerly were dependent on relief," the association declared. "People who have been dependent on relief should be helped in every way possible to go to work, either in industry or in jobs vacated by men and women in war industries. County indigent aid during the present period of heavy demand for workers can be cut back so that it will be given only to the few people who cannot support themselves. Certainly the burden of caring for those who are now able to take care of themselves should be taken off the backs of the people."

Rainbow Room, All Redecorated, Larger, To Reopen Tomorrow

After working feverishly all week, throughout the night on one occasion, Earl Gray and his crew have completed the redecoration and renovation of the Rainbow room of the Royal Palms hotel and the attractive lounge will be ready for the public tomorrow.

One of the largest additions, both as to size and new service, is the huge walk-in refrigerator, large enough for ten men to stand in. This will hold the keys of Pabst Blue Ribbon beer to supply the new "Pabst Blue Ribbon on tap" service which will be inaugurated with the reopening of the Rainbow room.

Besides being completely redecorated, the lounge also has been enlarged.

Sil Silverman, popular entertainer, has returned to Palm Springs and will be heard nightly on the piano.

Gerald Sanborn Answers Call to U. S. Navy Service

Gerald K. Sanborn, deputy city engineer, is awaiting his call in to the service of the navy, expected within a few days, and is all prepared to leave for the service of Uncle Sam.

Mr. Sanborn has passed his physical tests and all other examinations and has been granted a Chief Petty Officer's commission, in the navy construction corps.

Mr. Sanborn has been active in many fields in Palm Springs for many years. As First Lieutenant Sanborn he commanded Company M of the California State Guard, and he has been prominent in American Legion circle, having served in the navy during World War I. He is also prominent in the Palm Springs Lions club and has been interested in many other civic activities. He has been a city employee since incorporation and besides being deputy city engineer, serves as street superintendent. Mrs. Sanborn and son will remain here for the present.

PACIFIC GREYHOUND LINES URGE PUBLIC TO POSTPONE LABOR DAY TRIP AND BUY BONDS INSTEAD

Commenting on the transportation situation, particularly as it will affect those who plan to travel over the Labor Day holidays, F. W. Ackerman, vice president of Pacific Greyhound Lines, pointed out that a heavy extra burden will be thrown on the already overloaded facilities of public carriers. Because of this, Pacific Greyhound is urging the public to observe certain suggestions that will aid in the handling of essential wartime traffic and at the same time help those who must travel and keep delay and crowding at a minimum.

Committee Named To Ask Dr. Hill To Remain Here

City council at its meeting Wednesday night authorized City Attorney Roy W. Colgate and City Manager Arthur E. Bailey to communicate with Dr. Jack C. Hill, now at Brockway at Lake Tahoe, in an effort to induce him to change his mind about leaving Palm Springs.

Dr. Hill has had an attractive offer in San Jose.

His many friends feel sure that he will return to the city.

Emergency Brings New Problem for Police

The war emergency has brought a new problem for Palm Springs police department.

Judge Guy Pinney reported this week that traffic citations to truck drivers have increased sharply. The tickets are divided between failure to observe boulevard stops and dumping gravel and rocks on highways, both violations of the state motor vehicle code.

Every attempt is being made to clear up the situation without impeding the war effort, said Judge Pinney.

DOING BUSINESS AT THE OLD STAND

After coming to Palm Springs many times in winters past as a casual outside visitor, I now find myself on the inside, a member of the community and, therefore, feel brash enough to speak out.

Recently on the outside, now on the inside, both sides of the picture are still clear. So it seems to me that Palm Springs is going to have to do a little talking around to dispell rumors and reports circulating in what the late Rob Wagner used to call "Elsewheria", and among those he termed "outlanders".

The grapevine that connects newspaper offices is one of the speediest gossip mediums extant. Therefore, it wasn't long after the decision to come here was made, that the "boys" in the other offices knew about it. And, so it seems anyway, the universal expression when they met me, was:

"Palm Springs? Why, I thought that place had been taken over by the army. I didn't know they were operating normally."

Of course, newspapermen being what they are, none of these rumors will find their way into print because no good newspaperman ventures into type without checking and rechecking first. But if the same opinion prevails among the non-newspaper people, and it undoubtedly does, the rumor will spread, for no check will be made there.

But Palm Springs people should have no trouble in liquidating this rumor. The answer is ready made.

Sure, the army came here. The army didn't take over Palm Springs, but it came here for the same reason that attracted people in the past and should attract them more than ever this season.

The army came here for three reasons. Important posts were established here because of the security of this area, safe from surprise attack. The army is building one of its largest hospitals here because Palm Springs is healthy. And both are here because Palm Springs is easy to reach.

When you combine security and climate with accessibility, it's an unbeatable combination.

So Palm Springs should tell its friends elsewhere that the Village has not become an army post, that it is still doing business as one of the healthiest winter resorts, that it is eager and able to take care of its guests as before.

If the army thinks that Palm Springs is the ideal spot, secure, with a salubrious climate, and easy to reach, that should be enough for the civilians.

ALL OUT FOR VICTORY

Newspaper go all out for Victory!

This is the theme of National Newspaper Week which will be observed throughout the country October 1 to 8.

Announcement to this effect is made jointly by Harry A. Lawson, publisher of the Eagle Rock Sentinel, and D. D. Durr, chairman of the Los Angeles Newspaper Publishers' Association, co-chairmen for the Weeklies division and the Dailies division, respectively, of the National Newspaper Week committee of the California Newspaper Publishers' Association of which the Palm Springs Sun is a member.

"The fires of freedom will never burn out so long as they are fed with printers ink," declares M. F. Small, publisher of the Feather Basin Bulletin and president of the California Newspaper Publishers' Association.

With staggering losses in personnel and increases in production and distribution problems as a result of the War, California newspapers really have gone all out for victory as attested by words of high praise from leaders in the innumerable War drives for the unlimited support given by the hometown press.

Official report of Al. G. Boss, chairman of the Press and Publicity Commission of the American Legion to its 24th annual convention in Los Angeles recently is not only typical, but corroborative. A brief excerpt:

"The press of California, even with limited space, due to the vast volume of War news and other timely matter, still continues to offer their column space to us in generous manner. We cannot thank them enough for this help in publicizing our program."

Many newspapers, in this time of decreased revenues and shortage of labor, have taken on the added work and expense of sending the newspapers free to the men from their communities in the service. Four Riverside county newspapers have taken on this additional expense and are bearing the cost by themselves. They are The Desert Sun of Palm Springs, the Banning Record and Herald, and the Coachella Submarine.

THE ARMY OKAYS WOMEN

Women are just as good as men on most flying jobs—and sometimes better. That is the opinion of Major Earl Johnson, commanding officer of 2500 American women pilots. These women aviators, who deliver materials and planes and ferry passengers away from the combat coastal areas, comprise a tenth of the Civil Air Patrol enrollment.

A booklet prepared by the War Department for American troops in England says this of British women in uniform: "British women have proved themselves. They have died at gun posts and as one has fallen another girl has stepped directly into the position and 'carried on.' There is not a single record of any British woman in uniformed service failing in her duty under fire. When you see a girl in uniform with a bit of ribbon on her tunic, remember she didn't get it for knitting more socks than anyone else in Ipswich."

Such praise from the Army is not lightly given—and is well earned.

ADMISSION DAY

On September 9, 1850, Congress passed a bill admitting California to statehood.

Not quite three years later—July 14, 1853—Commodore Matthew C. Perry of the U.S. Navy met the Lord of Toda on Kurihama Beach, Japan, and gave him President Fillmore's letter to the Emperor, which resulted in a treaty of peace and amity that gave American ships access to Japanese ports and opened commercial relations between the two countries.

In the light that this bloody war casts against the background of American history, those events of long ago stand out in new significance as Californians prepare to observe their State's Admission Day.

To most congressmen of the time, California's admission to the Union—coming in a "free" State—was just one of a series of compromise political arrangements in the bitter struggle between opponents and supporters of slavery for legislative power. To all but a few westerners of daring imagination, California was just a remote wilderness, important only because gold could be mined there.

No man could have foreseen that America's peaceful opening of feudal Japan to Occidental commerce would result in Japan's incredibly rapid development into a first-class power, openly dedicated to the conquest of the United States and the seizure of the Pacific Coast.

Defeat of the United States, it goes without question, would bring permanent loss to the West to fast-breeding hordes of Japanese, would bar the United States from the Pacific and reduce her to the humiliating condition of a subordinate nation.

But the growth of this California industrial and agricultural empire, outstripped in speed Japan's rise to military greatness. California, as the decades passed, made the nation "West-minded." On that Admission Day, 92 years ago, began the long chain of events—acquisition of Alaska, Honolulu, the Philippines; development of the Pacific Northwest; the building of the Panama Canal; the creation of a transcontinental railway network—that have welded power in the Pacific that will destroy the Japanese menace for all time.

California's Admission Day of 1942 may well be her proudest!

GETTING READY FOR A SECOND FRONT

In Las Vegas, Nevada, an observer reported by radio the other day, all the gambling casinos are doing a rip-roaring business. People, to get to them, are burning up good tires on the hot roads, as well as channeling their war-made money into unproductive and socially harmful enterprises. Outside one of the casinos, a parked automobile bore this sign: "Demand a Second Front Now."—Christian Science Monitor.

"Dug Out"

By RUTH SUMMERS

Don't forget the cakes on Sunday. Just leave them with any Sunday hostess. With so many families returning and establishing themselves for the winter, the boys may look forward to more home-made cookies and more cakes. For whom would we rather use our quotas of sugar? Certain wild honeys are excellent substitutes for sugar for those wishing to use their sugar for the boys—and don't forget, the "Dug Out" can furnish cookie recipes which require little and no sugar.

Life of the "Dug Out" hostesses was greatly interested in the experience of Mr. Francis Krull, retired, now residing in Cathedral City, Judge Krull having difficulty in obtaining matches in a crowded Indio drug store one evening, was accommodated by a soldier, who gave him a "light." During the ensuing conversation, Mr. Krull discovered that the soldier was lonely and distressed because he could find accommodations nowhere.

The result of the story may be read in the lines of the following letter which Mr. Krull showed our hostess, after he had received it from the boy's parents:

New Orleans, La.

8/14/42.

Mr. Francis Krull,
Cathedral City, Calif.
P. O. Box 137.

Dear Sir:

You will be surprised when you receive this letter and wondering who I am. I just don't know how to start the letter, writing to a stranger. One son is in the army. He is in Rice, Calif. He wrote telling us about the way you treated him. We want to thank you very much for treating our son so nice, as we dearly love him, as he is a very dear, sweet son to his parents. It makes me very happy to know you gave him a place to sleep and a fine meal. God will reward you for your charity and good deed and you will be remembered in our prayers. It makes me feel so happy when a stranger treats the soldiers so nice, as they should be treated fine. Once again, we want to thank you, as it comes from the bottom of our hearts. My husband told me to write, so here's wishing you the best of luck, and may God bless you for doing such a fine deed.

Yours truly,

As you have observed, Mr. Krull took the soldier home, gave him a bed, meals, and warm hospitality. Let us not forget that when we avail ourselves of such opportunities, we serve three.

Village And Thrifty 5-and-10c To Stage Pre-School Events

Palm Springs youngsters will be starting back to school on September 14 and to help them prepare for the coming term, Kenneth DuBose of the Thrifty 5, 10 and 15-cent store and the Village 5 and 10, has arranged a sale at both of his stores, to start September 5 and come to a close September 14.

Articles necessary to the successful pursuit of the three B's and related subjects, will be offered. It has always been the policy of Mr. DuBose to cater to the school children's trade and each fall the two stores are stocked with school supplies.

Mr. DuBose will manage the Village 5 and 10, and Mrs. DuBose the Thrifty 5, 10 and 25 store.

Our fighting men are doing their share. Here at home the least we can do is put 10% of our income in War Bonds for our share in America.

U. S. O.

By RUTH SUMMERS

At Torney General Hospital are to be found many young women doing essential work in offices. These young ladies work six days a week, eight hours a day, yet they find time, and energy, and above all, enthusiasm to give to USO, serving in the capacity of hostesses. Their special group has been formed under the chairmanship of Lee Kingsbury and Adeline Williamson. About ten girls have been serving regularly for several weeks. Mrs. Mae Nerad, Elayne Nerad and Mrs. Maryclyn Jones, having filled out their application cards and taken their places in the ranks of official hostesses. At last Tuesday's business meeting, the chairman of the Palm Springs USO expressed her appreciation for the cooperation of the hospital unit, and for the important part it is playing in the success of the entertainment and recreation offered at Hospitality House. Many of the unit have found it possible to assist on Sundays, one of the heaviest days and one of the hardest days for hostesses to obligate themselves.

Seven days and nights a week at USO Hospitality House, yet every one different. Last Tuesday night was one which proved rich in music, spontaneously presented and deeply enjoyed by all present, even those at the pool table. Hostesses were found squeezing orange juice by hand, in order not to disturb the strains of Gounod's Ave Maria. Raymond Thompson, private first class, from Torney General Hospital, had been persuaded to carry his violin over to Hospitality House, and as Betty O'Brien was at the piano, a splendid evening of music ensued. Comment upon the rendition of the Ave Maria has been most enthusiastic. Corporal Gennich was also present and added his fine voice to the general singing, led by Betty O'Brien and Gennich, the boys joined in singing their favorite numbers. Betty O'Brien has a few followers who never miss an evening when she is to be at the piano, and never miss a note. The music lovers hope Raymond Sampson will be there as often a Betty, because his violin is really beautiful—and then there is Mid Vail. Now Mid Vail is something unique. He came from the hospital, too, as the guest of the boys because he is not a soldier and no longer a boy. But the remark most often heard at the bar after he rendered a number was "Is he good?" The boys express all sorts of enthusiasm over his piano and songs, maybe some of them are "dillies." So I know USO hopes to be honored by his presence again—soon.

Last Saturday night was all it promised to be—and more. The band which the 3rd Armored Division from Rice brought in was the essence of syncopation. I think it was a jam session. At any rate it look like one, and sounded like one, and the exponents of the modern ultra fast movement in the dance were well represented. With Frank Bennet calling dances and acting as master of ceremonies, everyone was delighted to dance to the strains of a live orchestra—and the band is coming again this Saturday, September 5, with 150 dance partners from Rice for the girls of the Desert Detail. Last Saturday, Leonid Kinsky, the well known Hollywood character actor, was warmly applauded for his humorous entertainment, so generously given for the boys of our army.

The success of last Saturday's dance insures the success of this Saturday's dance, so I presume there is no need to urge the girls to turn out. The boys of this Third Armored Force have surely spent a lot of time dancing in private life.

Benefit Payments In County Below Average In State

Average old age assistance payments made in Riverside county during July, last month for which figures are available, was $36.39, or a few cents lower than the state's average, $36.46, the state department of institutions revealed in Sacramento.

During the month, 3428 oldsters received a total of $124,745.87 in state, federal and county funds, the department revealed.

Average aid to the blind in Riverside county was $44.54, as compared with $46.76 for the state as a whole. The 80 needy blind in the county received a total of $3563.12.

The 847 needy children in the county also received less than the average needy child in the state, or $17.09, as compared with $22.45. The total given needy children in the county was $14,476.25.

be "she" . . . In the bee realm, it's the female of the species, too . . . But about the time I was about to break into "My Mommy Done Tole Me" or wish I was the guy who thought up the theme of "I Got Spurs," she said: "At that, why not? You've got enough screwy ideas for a columnist, you own a dog, you're death on add facts, you're married to me. Only thing wrong is that you don't like poetry—at least, not the kind that looks well in print" . . . But just like a woman, she added the last word that ruined that build-up: "Yes, you'd be a good columnist. The 'I' key on your typewriter is worn completely flat" . . . But there'll always be a pencil."

DO you remember when people shook their heads and bemoaned the trend which was taking so many youths to college to study medicine, the law or kindred professions? . . . The pointers-to-wealth-alarm said that soon there would be no laborers left the way the youngsters were striving to get into the white collar class . . . There were tales of struggling young doctors hanging out their shingles—and continuing to struggle . . . But along about now these same people probably wish more young men had rushed into the medical schools . . . There is a real and grave shortage of medical men these days . . . For a while it looked as if there wouldn't be a medico here this winter, which would have been a calamity. But that seems to have been averted . . . Besides, with some of the finest doctors and surgeons in the nation in the village at Torney hospital, a real emergency would find plenty of help on hand.

WELL, that's all. Cheer up, it may get better and again, there's every possibility that it may get worse.

You've Got to be Over 17 to Stay Out after 9 p.m.

It's too bad there isn't a good-sized bell in Palm Springs.

As it is, there's no chance for any kid to hang on to the ropes and yodel "Curlew Shall Not Ring Tonight."

So all the little kiddies will have to disappear from the streets at 9 p. m. and dare not show their fresh young faces again until 6 a. m., when a new ordinance, given first reading by city council Wednesday night, becomes effective.

The measure provides that children under 17 years of age, must not loiter or appear on the streets after 9 p. m., unless accompanied by their parents or other legal guardians, or unless running some errand, or if going or coming from their place of employment.

And parents are enjoined, under the proposed act, from allowing their youngsters on the streets or sending them on foolish errands.

The penalty for violation can run up to a maximum fine of $300 or three months in jail, or both.

Boost In Wages Is Given Gas Company Employees

A ten-dollar-per-month "cost of living" wage adjustment for all employees earning less than $300.00 per month has been announced by Southern California Gas Company.

Effective as of August 16th, the raise is a boost in hourly rate of 5.77 cents. The adjustment is designed to aid employees in meeting the rise in the cost of living which has occurred since the last general increase a year ago, according to company spokesman.

It's common sense to be thrifty. If you save you are thrifty. War Bonds help you to save and help to save America. Buy your ten per cent every pay day.

Army Official Reveals All Civilian Traffic Will Cease In Event Troops Move

In case of a war emergency, which would make it necessary for army authorities to move personnel and equipment from inland points to the coast, all highways and secondary roads in Southern California would be barred to civilian traffic, it was stated Tuesday at a meeting of the Riverside Defense Council at Riverside. The statement was made by an army spokesman during a discussion of emergency evacuation methods.

Capt. L. G. Turner of the provost marshal's office, speaking for the army, emphasized the necessity of co-ordination of army and civilian traffic handling as he described the intricate system already ready to be put into action if need for movement of troops should occur in the Southern California sector of the Western Defense area.

"Military equipment and personnel would of necessity be given right of way to the absolute exclusion of civilian traffic," he stated. "In this connection, our military police would expect the assistance of civilian peace officers, and of the auxiliary police, in addition to civilian defense agencies."

Army authorities are appreciative of the help already received from civilian sources, he said, and expect to cooperate more and more closely with all official agencies in respect to mapping of routes and handling of traffic problems.

Officer Paul Decker of the California Highway Patrol described the methods, which had been set up by the civilian authorities, to cope with possible traffic emergencies due to the war. Two hundred key stations have been arranged on highways and county roads, he revealed, to control evacuation of civilian population.

Do Your Yuletide Mailing During October, Advice

Do your Christmas gift mailing to the boys who are in service overseas, and that includes Alaska, during October. Postmaster R. M. Gorham says that the earlier the mailing is done, the better.

The war and navy departments have asked for a voluntary restriction in the size of packages. Since the boys in all branches of service are well supplied with clothing and food, it is asked that these articles be excluded from gift packages. Regulations have been set up which prohibit the sending of more than one package in the same week to the same addressee.

Since all packages, like letters, are subject to censorship, the request has been made that packages be so wrapped that inspection can be made easily.

Warning was also sounded that some foreign countries frown on American currency. Gifts of money should be sent in postal money orders, which can be converted into the proper foreign money at current rates of exchange.

No Breeze, No Quake, This Summer House Was Very, Very Tired

It may have been the breeze... it certainly wasn't an earthquake.

But while Mrs. E. C. Boles of the Tahquitz Inn, 124 E. Arenas Road, and a guest were conversing, Sunday, both were startled by a terrific crash.

Investigation revealed that a summer house, next to the inn, had suddenly collapsed.

Fortunately, no one was beneath its shade at the time.

Don Grahams Purchase Home And Acreage In Banning

Mr. and Mrs. Don Graham, winter residents and property owners here, this week purchased a seven and one-half acre parcel of property improved with a fine, modern house in Colony Lands tract in Banning.

On the property are stables and the Grahams will start additional improvements and landscaping in the near future. The deal was handled by Mike Flavin of the Harold Hicks office.

County's Cash Balance $1,840,848 Is Report

Riverside county's cash balance this week totaled $1,840,848.01, according to County Treasurer J. F. Reimer.

Disbursements for the month of August totaled $430,089.11. Receipts for the same period were $192,894.19.

Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

It is hard to put on paper any words that can express the shock our little community felt upon learning of the tragic death of Kenneth Booth Gepfert on Monday of this week.

So far we have only the account of one of the Los Angeles papers stating that Kenneth was at work on alterations of a harbor plant and apparently, with two helpers, was moving a ventilating pipe when it came in contact with an electric power line, causing his death by electrocution. It also mentioned the horrified eyes of his assistants as they beheld the tragedy.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Gepfert, Kenneth's parents, have lived on the desert in our village for many years and here came their two sons, Morgan or "Gep" and Kenneth, or "Ken," and lived with their parents while employed here or in Palm Springs.

Only recently both boys were married and took their brides to live in a duplex home in the big city while they did defense work there.

Ken was 27 years old at the time of his death. He was so very well liked by all who knew him.

To his parents, to his widow, to his brother, and to his many relatives, we extend the sympathy of this desert community of Cathedral City.

Parents of two of our beloved local boys have this week felt the deep emotion of giving them to our navy. Stanley S. Craig, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Craig, was this week inducted into the navy. And Leonard R. Bryant, only son of his widowed mother, Mabel Bryant, also enlisted in the navy. Stanley was a recent graduate of the Palm Springs high school, and Leonard was a student there. Both boys were below legal age, which required written permission of their parents for them to enter the service. Stanley's older brother, Richard, is now in the army. So, good luck boys. We at home will do the best we can for you so that you may return honored victors in this war.

Because another former high school student has taken a momentous step in life, it will interest you to know that the youngest daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Elsterman, Miss Barbara Elsterman, became the bride of Ferdinand H. Peterson in Los Angeles on July 31, 1942. The young couple have taken an apartment in Hollywood.

L. E. Zinn has returned to the Village and reopened the service station he operated last season in Palm Springs.

Mrs. Perry E. McCullough was here last week with her brother to look after her property here.

Dr. E. H. Brandt, with Mrs. Brandt, operated their court as usual last weekend and in addition kept their eye on the Hillery office while the Hillerys went to Thomas Mountain, stopping Sunday morning at Nightingale to enjoy a fine mountain breakfast with Mrs. Anne Reilly and the Wolseiths. These people have the substantial menu of the mountains, but also the food of the gods as you feast your eyes on Deep Canyon as it drops away from your feet in the foreground, to be followed by the sharp rise of Toro Peak and Santa Rosa Peak just beyond.

Arriving at our cabin further on we enjoyed seeing the improvement in our friend and neighbor, Agnes Pelton. This eminent artist carries on her work while not enjoying the best of health, but this season in the mountains appears to have worked wonders and we trust the improvement continues when Miss Pelton returns shortly to her desert studio here.

We returned Tuesday and the next day Marguerite and Robert left for a few days in Hollywood.

before the long grind of the active season starts.

The fire district petition is circulating without evidence of protest.

The best immediate news regards sanitation. President C. S. Cobb of the Chamber of Commerce met with his committee, Mrs. Chester Ide substituting for her husband, who is away; H. E. Peterson and C. W. Larrison. Some details are to be worked out, but if the Villagers will do the best they can to look after and dispose of their garbage until the first of next month, the regular pick-up will be made on Mondays and Fridays and it is hoped every householder will help support this very difficult problem.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Kuehlborn are back for a few day anyway. We snared John right now for duty on the observation post. That reminds us, that in a little over a week school begins and we are going to lose some of our shifters for some of their shifts and we need volunteers this week.

In return for the sacrifices of time given throughout the extremes of weather by the volunteer observers, we are aiming at having a record of efficiency. With that idea in mind we have made protest to the army about unnecessary noise and lights here that interfere with our aircraft detection service. Another effort at improvement was made on Thursday when John A. Kuehlborn and Frank Harrington, of the old reliables of the post, drove to a point north of the great white dunes across the valley to park for the day and make detailed observations there, when their findings will be compared with our log here for the same period to correct estimates of distance, etc.

School District Sets Tax Rate For Year Here At $1.51

School districts in Riverside county this week reported their tax rates for the 1942-43 fiscal year to County Auditor Ray T. Hicks. These tax rates included maintenance, bonds and interest.

The tax rates range from a low of 60 cents per $100 of assessed valuation at Lakeview, to $2.02 in the Coachella district.

The rate established for the Desert district, which includes Palm Springs, is $1.51 per $100 of assessed valuation.

The Ballad of Charlie McCoffus

A field engineer named Charlie McCoffus Worked all day in the field, and all night at the office, Checking contracts and vouchers and estimates, too. To be picked all to bits by the Washington crew.

For the boys in D.C. in their double lens specs, Their sawed complexions and fried-collar necks, Care not for the time nor the money they waste, If a carbon is missing, a comma misplaced, They bounce back the paper with ill-concealed jeers To harass the hard-working field engineers.

To get back to Charlie—he struggled along, 'Till an ache in his head told him something was wrong. He went to a doctor and, "Doctor," said he, "There's a buzz in my head; what's the matter with me?"

Well, the medico thumped, as medicoes do, And he tested his pulse and his reflexes, too; And his head and his heart and his throat and each lung, And Charlie said "Ah," and he stuck out his tongue. Then the doctor said "Gad! What a narrow escape! But a brief operation will put you in shape."

"Your brain's overworked, like a motor run down, And you're flirting with death every time you turn 'round. I must take out your brain for complete overhauling: In the interim, take a respite from your calling."

So Charlie McCoffus went under the knife; He struggled home brainless and kissed his own wife, While his family doctor and two other men Were putting his brain back in order again.

Well, the weeks rolled along and Charlie McCoffus Never called for his brain at the medico's office.

The doctor was worried, gave Charlie a ring; Said, "You'd better come over and get the damned thing". "Thanks, Doc, I don't need it," said Charlie McCoffus, "I'm being transferred to the Washington office."

So Charlie now wears a fried collar to work And he hides in the lairs where the auditors lurk. And his letters bring tremors of anger and fear To the head of each hard-working field engineer.

And the pride and joy of the Washington office Is brainless, predacious Charlie McCoffus.

Golden Wedding Anniversary For Woodsons Today

It's not every couple that has the privilege to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary. But today, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Woodson, residents here for many years, have lived together for 50 years, "for better or for worse, in sickness and in health."

Although Mr. Woodson is in poor health and confined to his home, Mrs. Woodson finds time to take care of him and make her regular visits to the Red Cross sewing room to sew for the less fortunate.

So today, their many friends join their old acquaintances throughout these United States, in wishing this dear old couple the very best in the years to come.

Program Presented At Torney Hospital

The tennis courts at the Torney Hospital were brilliantly and artistically lighted Wednesday evening when a program was presented for enlisted men and patients. Officers and their wives and some civilians were also guests.

The program was devoted mostly to musical numbers presented by soldiers. One patient contributed with imitations.

Sam Hinton of the Museum also took part in the program.

Lieutenant Gray In Palm Springs To Visit Brother

First Lieutenant Weslie Gray, army air corps ferrying command, stationed at Long Beach, was in Palm Springs Thursday, staying over until Saturday, visiting his brother, Earl Gray, manager of the Royal Palms Hotel.

Lieut. Gray, widely known former resident of Palm Springs, organized the first airport in the village.

Despite the war and other related items, the most important announcement Lieut. Gray had to make to his many friends here was that his son, Jimmy, is entering the first grade at Long Beach this fall.

MEMORY

Memory is a fickle jade, Swinging pocket oddly made Brimming full of divers things Little sayings, holding stings— Bits of fleeting loveliness Lasting jewels, made to bless. Memory is a fickle jade Hording peculiar things Smell of cookies, freshly made Scent of pines, wind that sings Jangling stones, stones to chime Strung together, made to climb. Memory is a fickle jade Pocket in a ruthless hand Trash in it she cannot stand Ah, this jade, she did not know Glistening jewels forever glow.

Explain Delays
In Sending Mail
To U.S. Soldiers

Although the army postal service has delivered millions of letters to soldiers throughout the world, some mail is being unavoidably delayed or returned to the sender because of erroneous or insufficient addresses, it has been pointed out by army public relations officers.

Mail addressed to soldiers outside continental United States should show:

1. Grade and name, plus army serial number if known.
2. Letter or number of company or organization and the regiment or separate battalion to which soldier belongs.
3. Army postoffice number, care of appropriate postmaster. For example:

"Private John J. Doe (Army serial number).

"Company B.

"212th Infantry.

APO 801 c/o Postmaster.

"San Francisco, Calif."

The name and address of the sender should be in the upper left corner of the envelope, and space left for indorsements of forwarding agencies if necessary.

It is stressed that the location of an overseas station should not be used and there should be no reference in the letter which might associate the APO number with the geographical location of the unit.

Before leaving for foreign service, soldiers are given APO numbers for mail to be sent in care of postmasters of designated cities. These numbers should be used to avoid delay in locating the units of the addressees.

Mail addressed to army personnel at posts, camps or stations inside the United States should show the same information, except that the postoffice address of the place should be shown, preceded by the APO number where appropriate.

Mail for army personnel on maneuvers in the United States should show the same information as that for men in foreign service.

10 Percent of Your Income in War Bonds

The attractive red, white and blue window sticker, pictured above, is the new yardstick of patriotism in the War Bond drive throughout the nation. With the slogan, "Everybody every pay day, ten percent," sweeping the country, patriotic Americans on the home front are rallying to their Government's appeal for funds with which to help finance the war. The home which displays the "ten percent" sticker is doing its share toward Victory for America and the United Nations. The stickers are being distributed through local War Savings Chairmen.
